

PARTNERSHIP INQUIRY FORM

The Forum for Scholars and Publics welcomes ideas from faculty, staff, students, and community members about potential programs. To inquire about partnership possibilities or to request co-sponsor funding, please return this form to our Director of Programs, Lou Brown, at lou.brown@duke.edu.

| Your Name and Affiliation: |
|---|
| Proposed Name of Event or Project: |
| Proposed Event Date/Time: |
| Proposed Location and Rationale for Location: |
| Topic. Provide a short paragraph describing the topic and activities you anticipate the |
| program involving. |
| |
| |
| Event Format. How will the event be structured? How will your participants |
| communicate with each other and with the audience? |
| |
| Participants. Who are the primary participants, and how were they selected? Will there be a moderator or MC? |
| |
| |

| Duke or elsewhere? What will each contribute in terms of resources and participants? |
|--|
| |
| |
| |
| Fit for Duke and the Forum. If you are proposing a visitor, how does their work |
| connect to scholarly projects at Duke? Will they be comfortable engaging with non- |
| specialist scholars, professionals, and community members as part of their activities? |
| |
| |
| Possible Reach. Who do you envision will attend or participate? How will you |
| promote your event on and off campus? |
| |
| |
| |
| Total Event or Project Budget: |
| Amount Requested: |